Biography

CAPTAIN CARL FISMER

With over 30 years of treasure search and salvage experience, Captain Carl Fisser is one of the most respected and knowledgeable diving professionals in the world. His specialty is shipwrecks...especially Spanish shipwrecks. During his career he has worked over 300 shipwrecks in the United States, Bahamas, Dominican Republic, Jamaica, the Indian Ocean and Central and South America. He has recovered millions of dollars in Spanish gold, silver, jewels and other artifacts. "Fizz", as he is known to friends, directed part of the salvage diving of the Santa Margarita, sister ship to the Nuestra Senora de Atocha which was discovered by Mel Fisher. Then in 1985 he led an expedition to the Silver Shoals in the Dominican Republic, and there located the famed galleon, Concepcion which sank during a hurricane in 1641. In 1988 he traveled to Sri Lanka and dove with Sir Arthur C. Clarke of 2001: A Space Odyssey fame, in association with the Great Basses Reef Treasures.

In 1980, Captain Carl E. Fisser founded Spanish Main Treasure Company (SMTC). Since its inception, SMTC has salvaged artifacts and sunken treasure from shipwrecks around the world. SMTC maintains a considerable inventory of treasure, coins, artifacts, books and video documentaries for perusal or sale. SMTC specializes in producing Treasure-Related Speeches, treasure-related exhibitions and displays. These presentations have proven to peak interest wherever SMTC goes.
